DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 20 is confusing. Claim 20 depends from claim 18 which calls for a retaining wall block. Claim 20 calls for "an anchoring element secured to the stabilizing element"; however, such limitation is not part of the block and as such the limitation is treated as intended use.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dawson (US 5601384).

Dawson discloses a retaining wall block (see Figs. 9a,b) comprising left (16,18), right (16,18), front (20) and rear (22) body portions, interior space (30), at least one alignment element (46) extending vertically from a top surface of said block, said alignment element adapted to be removably received within said interior space of said block (see col. 7 line 25+) and at least one groove (42, see Figs. 9a,9b).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 18-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
